Award

To put in brief the Government of J&K vide its Notification No. 89 dated 22nd March, 2010, referred the above titled Industrial Dispute to this Court under section 10(1) (c) of the I. D. Act for adjudication on the following issues :—

1. Whether the management is legally justified in withholding the salary of its aforesaid workmen for the month of July and August, 2008 ?
2. If so, to what relief the said workmen are entitled to ?

On receipt of the reference, notices were issued to the parties who appeared and filed their respective claims/objections.

The claim of the petitioners is that their wages for the month of July and August, 2008 were withheld by the respondent for no fault of the petitioners because there was Jammu Band during the Amar Nath Shrine Board dispute and Curfew was also imposed by the State Government taking into consideration the Law and Order situation. The petitioners have not intentionally absented from the factory for some days in July, 2008 and few days in August, 2008. It was out of their control to come to the factory because no traffic was allowed due to Jammu Band and the Curfew imposed by the Government. The respondent, even aware of the circumstances, had not provided any transport to the petitioners so as to enable them to attend their duties. The petitioners have alleged that the action of respondent in withholding the wages of the petitioners is illegal and have prayed for release of their wages for July and August, 2008.

The respondent in their objections have simply stated that the wages of the petitioners were withheld because they had absented themselves from the factory. The respondent had, as such, claimed that their action in withholding the wages of the petitioners for July and August, 2008 is genuine and legal. They have prayed for dismissal of the claim of the petitioners.

The respondents have claimed that they have paid the wages to petitioners for the month of July and August, 2008 and have submitted the receipts in photostat. But failed to produce the original record despite repeated directions as mentioned in the interim orders. Therefore cannot be relied up that they have paid the wages for these two months to petitioners as they have not produced the original record, in this regard, despite directions from the Court.

In terms of interim order dated 05-11-2011, this Court has held that the points referred for adjudication by the Government be treated as issues in the case and the parties were directed to adduce evidence on these issues.

During the course of recording evidence, the A/R for respondent Sh. Kuldip Khajuria has given statement at bar as recorded in interim order dated 10-02-2015 that they shall pay the reference amount to the petitioners, his signature is also recorded in the interim order dated 10-02-2015. Even on 03-03-2015 A/R for the respondent had again undertaken to pay the amount in question to the petitioners but after that on the following date of the hearing again disputed the claim of the petitioners and as such the case was again posted for recording of evidence.

The parties have filed written statement of witness in the shape of affidavits and the witness were cross-examined by the opposite side. The evidence was finally closed and the case was fixed for final arguments.

The parties have filed their arguments in writing.

I have perused the arguments filed by both the parties and have gone through record available on the file and the evidence produced by the parties.

It is evident from the record, evidence and other material available on record that due to Jammu Band and the Curfew imposed by the State Government in the year 2008 during the Amar Nath Shrine Board dispute some workers (the petitioners) have not attended the respondent factory for some days in the months of July and August, 2008. It was out of control of petitioners to attend their duties due to non-availability of transport during the Band and Curfew. It is an admitted fact that during these days of disturbance so many workers either to the private sector or of Government Departments did not reach there place of posting due to Curfew or Jammu Band, but their wages were not deducted by their respective management/department because the situation was not under the control of the employees/workers. As such the same facts applies to the case of petitioners. As stated above, the respondent has in the open Court agreed to pay the withheld amount of salary to the petitioners but later on withdraw their commitment.

For the foregoing reasons and observations made, hereinabove, I hold that the respondent has illegally withheld the salary of the petitioners for the months of July and August, 2008. As such Issue No. 1 referred for adjudication by the Government to this Court is decided against the respondent and in favour of the petitioners.

As a relief mentioned in Issue No. 2 the petitioners are held entitled to receive the full salary of July and August, 2008 from the respondent. Therefore, the respondent is directed to make the payment of withheld salary for the month of July and August, 2008 to the petitioners along with interest @ 8% per annum forthwith.

An Award is accordingly passed in favour of the petitioners and against the respondent. The reference is answered accordingly.

Copy of award be sent to the appropriate Government of J&K through its Commissioner/Secretary, Labour Department for information and its publication in the Government Gazette. File shall consign to records after its due completion.
